

Ahousaht Wellness Centre is Hiring!

We are currently looking for a Residential Support Worker (RSW) and are also building a casual / on-call support list.

If you are caring, dependable, and have a heart for helping people in their healing journey, we would love to hear from you.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is dependable, caring, and works well in a healing environment.
- Is willing to work flexible shift work hours, including days, evenings, nights, and weekends.
- Is willing to complete a criminal record check as a condition of employment.
- Can assist with light cleaning duties & off loading freight as needed.
- Can work respectfully with clients, staff, and the community.
- Has experience in support work or a related field, which is an asset.

Assets:

- Experience working in a First Nations community.
- Knowledge of Ahousaht culture and values.
- First Aid, Food Safe, or other related training - willing to obtain.

How to apply:

Please send your resume and cover letter to info.wellness@ahousaht.ca or drop it off at the Ahousaht Wellness Centre.

Join us in supporting healing, wellness, and community care.